Essay

Our program is situated in an urban center and you will be interning in urban classrooms. We are interested in how your interests and experiences relate to our commitment to serve urban youth. Discuss briefly (500-1000 words) your interests in the field of education and the special interests or skills you feel you bring to it. Some autobiographical material would be helpful. Please include experience you have had with children or adolescents. Attach your essay to this application.

References

Two references are required. One reference should be a faculty member in your major or intended major who knows you well. Your second reference may be a faculty member or someone who has served as your supervisor for work or an internship. Reference forms may be downloaded from the website.

Liberal Arts and Sciences Audit Form

All new Education Program students must complete the Liberal Arts and Sciences Audit Form upon application to the program to indicate courses already taken and courses planned for fulfilling the liberal arts and sciences requirements. Please attach a completed Liberal Arts and Sciences Audit Form to this application.

Transcript

Please attach a student copy of your current transcript to this application.
